STATE SUNSHINE AND SHADOW.

—It costs $90 each to keep the paupers of Scott county.

—The commission to revise the statutes went to work last week.

—Richmond is to have a government building to cost $65,000; the site cost $15,000.

—A scandal in high life is reported from Mt. Sterling, and two divorce suits have been filed.

—Chris Geizer, a Lexington saloon-keeper, has disappeared, leaving debts to the amount of $2,600.

—Greenup county pays 13 cents a day for the support of its paupers, and Carter county 50 cents a day.

—At Maysville Samuel Sullivan was given two years for the murder of Thos. Brachears in February, 1889.

—The Owensboro Daily Inquirer has been sold to a joint stock company who will greatly improve the paper.

—Will Hall attempted to rape Mrs. Wm. Ratcliffe in Marion. She overpowered him and had him arrested.

—Col. R. P. Pepper, of Frankfort, last week sold in Chicago nineteen head of standard bred trotting fillies for $13,340.

—Maysville is endeavoring to take in the village of Chester in order to raise its class, if possible, under the new constitution.

—The Lebanon Enterprise says there is a cave in LaRue county in which there are no fish during the summer, but they return regularly to winter.

—In a difficulty at Lexington, Wm. Adams stabbed Sid Ellis, cutting into the cavity. The wound is a serious one, though not necessarily fatal.

—The Sentinel-Democrat says: "The Kuppe and Carpenters have moved from the scene of the recent killing of James and George Howard in Bath county."

—W. B. Greene sold to C. Moberly 20 feeders that weighed 1,235 at $8.65 per cwt., and a premium of $5; also to Joe C. Turley 25 250 pound hogs at 34 cents per pound.—Sentinel-Democrat.

—The Kentucky Union road made a big cut in the scale of wages in the shops at Clay City, which went into effect on the 1st inst. A number of the old men went out to seek work elsewhere.

—The Clay City Chronicle says the new court house at Stanton is approaching completion, and when finished will be one of the best and most economically constructed buildings in the State.

—Geo. R. Beall was walking on the frosty railroad platform at Russellville, one morning last week, when he slipped and fell under the cars, having one leg so badly crushed it had to be amputated.

—A spark from a passing train set fire to the woods near Enterprise, Carter county, and destroyed thousands of dollars worth of timber and fencing. J. Z. Clark lost ten acres of corn in the shock.

—The Danville Advocate has been presented with a gourd over six inches in circumference, and Polk Johnson, of the Frankfort Capital, wants to know if any of the delegates to the Con. Con. has lost his head.

—Fannie Barrett, of Fleming county, was arrested at Maysville for wearing men's clothes. She preferred a false charge of rape against James Pugh and brother and had them sent to the penitentiary a few years ago. They are now out, having been pardoned, and she is afraid they will kill her. She gave this as her reason for masquerading in coat and pants.

—Judge Andrew Combs, of Perry county, 83 years old, rode to Jackson horseback last Sunday a distance of 25 miles and Monday morning boarded the passenger train at 5:20 and went to Frankfort. He employed an attorney to attend to a case in the Court of Appeals and returned Tuesday. Wednesday he repeated his Sunday's exercise. How is that for an old man?—Hustler.

—Tom Holyfield, of Perry county, is to be tried in the United States court, at Louisville, the 13th inst., for the killing of Madden, in Knott county, in 1889. It will be remembered that Russell Wireman made a raid on some moonshiners in Knott county that year and was killed on Carr's Fork. Holyfield was one of his posse and Madden was killed in the attempt to arrest him. A number of witnesses went down to the trial this week.—Jackson Hustler, Oct. 30.

"Seeing is Believing."

And a good lamp must be simple; when it is not simple it is not good. Simple, Beautiful, Good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. All metal, tough and seamless, and made in three pieces only, it is absolutely safe and unbreakable. Like Aladdin's of old, it is indeed a "wonderful lamp," for its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light and more cheerful than either.

Look for this stamp—THE ROCHESTER. If the lamp dealer has not the genuine Rochester, and the style you want, send to us for our new illustrated catalogue, and we will send you a lamp safely by express—your choice of over 2,000 varieties from the LAMP STORE OF THE WORLD.

Do the Right Thing at the Right Time and Go About 'It in the Right Way, and All Will Be Well.

Dr. Talmage's text last Sunday was taken from John xviii, 37: "To this hour I have."

[illegible]

By the time a child reaches ten years of age the parents begin to discover that child's destiny, but by the time he or she reaches fifteen years of age that question is on the child's lips: "What am I to be? What am I going to do? What was I made for? It is a sensible and righteous question, and the youth ought to keep on asking it until it is so fully answered that the young man or young woman can say with as much truth as its author, though on a less expansive scale: "To this end was I born."

There is too much divine skill shown in the physical, mental and moral construction of the ordinary human being to suppose the two were constructed by accident. The two were constructed by a higher divine power.

If you take me out on some vast plain and show me a pillared temple standing, surrounded by a dome like St. Peter, and having a floor of purple, and a roof of gold, and the walls were taxed the brain of the greatest draughtsman to design and walls scrolled and niebed and paneled and varnished and painted, and the floor was polished and the roof was put up for, and you answered, "for nothing at all," how could I believe you? And it is impossible for me to believe in a religion that is not a religion which has in its muscular, nervous and cerebral organization more wonders than Christopher Wren lifted in St. Paul, or Christendom lifted in St. Peter, and a wall in such a way that it shall last long after St. Paul Cathedral is as much a ruin as the Parthenon—that such a being should be able to do anything that is not to execute no mission, and without any Divine intention toward some end. The object of this sermon is to help you to find out what is the meaning of religion, to find your sphere, and assist you into that condition where you can say with certainty and emphasis and enthusiasm and triumph: "To this end was termons who ought to be in blameth, shops making plowhandles, and we have in the law those who, instead of ruining the cases of their clients, ought to be pounding shop lasts, and doctors who are the worst hindrances to their patients' recovery, and artists trying to paint in rain, and men painting whitewashing board fences. While there are others making bricks who ought to be remodeling constitutions, or shoring planks who ought to be leveling the playing field.

"I am asking literature, Ask God about what you want to do, and I will undertake until you are so positive you can in earnestness smile your hand on your plow handle, or your carpenter's bench, or your Blackstone's 'Commentaries,' or your medical dictionary, or your 'Practical Anatomy,' or your 'Theology.'"

Saying: "For this end was I born." There are children who early develop natural affinities for certain styles of work. The father of the astronomer, however, Porches was going to London, he thought, to find his children what present he should bring each one of them. The boy who was to be an astronomer cried out: "I want a telescope." The father bought him a telescope, and the children when you find all by themselves, drawings on their slates, or on paper, ships or houses or birds, and you know they are to be draughtsmen or architects, they are always busy with their ciphering out difficult problems with rare interest and success, and you know they are to be mathematicians. And others making wheels and strange contrivances, and you know they are to be mechanists. And others are found experimenting with hose and pump and sleke, and you know they are to be farmers. And others are always scripping books, and you know they are to be bookbinders, and others making something by the bargain, and they are to be good merchants. When Abbe de Renee is to add, and he is a Greek that he can translate. Amerson, twelve years of age there was no doubt left that he was intended for a scholar. But in almost every lad there comes a time when he is to be a scholar, and a little muddle for, and his parents do not know, and it is a crisis that God only can decide. Then there are those born for some especial work, and their fitness

When Phillip Doddridge, whose sermons and books have harvested untold souls for glory, began to study divinity, Dr. Channing told him, "Wise men and good men, advised him to turn his thoughts to some other work." Isaac Burrow, the eminent clergyman and abolitionist, who died in 1850, and whose name, though he has been dead over 30 years, was the disbursement of his father, who used to say that if it pleased God to take any of his children, he would bequeath to the poor of Isaac. So some of those who have been characterized for their stupidity in boyhood or girlhood have turned out of the human race. These things being so, and I not right in saying that in many cases God only knows what is the best and appropriate thing to do, and he be the one to ask? And all parents, and all schools, and all universities, and all colleges recognize this, and a large number of them, about among business and occupations, now trying this and now trying that, and failing in all, would be able to do it, if they had the right motive and tremendous purpose, saying, to

"Is not my name born?"
 But I hold my nose, and I say to you, the mud that you are made of, that you are made for usefulness and Heaven. I judge this from the way you are built.
 You go into a shop where there is only one wheel turning and get an axle, or a cog, or a pulley, and say to yourself:
 "There is something good being done, yet on a small scale," but if you go into a factory covering many acres, and see thousands of wheels, and shafts flying, and the whole scene bewildering activities, driven by water, or steam, or electric power, you consider the work as great, and you say:
 "Great work and on a vast scale. Now,
 I look at you, and, if I should find that you had only one faculty of the body, only one muscle, only one nerve, if you could hear, but not see, or hear, or could hear and not see, if you had the use of only one foot or one hand, and as to your higher nature,
 if you had only one moral sense, no judgment, or judgment, but no will, and if you had a soul with only one capacity, I would say not much is expected of you. But stand up, oh man, and look at the things of every thing. Eyes capable of hearing every thing. Hands capable of grasping every thing. Mind with more wheels than a clock, and a body that can move. A soul that will outlive all the universe except heaven, and will outlive all Heaven if the life of the immortal is not the life of the spirit of man. Now, what has the world a right to expect of you? What has God a right to demand of you?
 God is the greatest.
 He made the world, He makes nothing uselessly, or for what purpose did He build your body, mind and soul as they are built? There are only two beings in the universe that He made as the angels do. He does not know.
 The schools do not know. Your kindred can not certainly know. God knows, and you ought to know. A factory running at a cost of $100,000,000 turning out goods worth seventy cents a year, you must not be such an incongruity as you, oh man, with such semi-infinite equipment doing nothing, or next to nothing, in the way of usefulness. "What shall I do?" you ask. My brethren, my sisters, do not ask me. Ask God. There's some path of Christian usefulness open. It may be a rough path, or it may be a smooth path, a long path, or a short path. It may be on a mount of conspiracy, or in a valley unobserved, but it is a path on which you can start with such faith and such satisfaction and such certainty that you can cry out in the face of earth and hell and Heaven: "To this end was I born."

Do not wait for extraordinary qualifications. Phillip the Conqueror gained his greatest victories seated on a mule, and he was never so successful as when Blueplains rode into the conflict; you will never get into the world-wide fight at all. Samson slew the Lord's enemies with the jawbone of the Lord. Two men have slain over six hundred of the Lord's enemies with an ox-goad. Under God, spitfire cured the blind man's eyes in the New Testament. Where, anyhow? You must have, show me the field and back me up by omnipotent power. Anywhere, anyhow, any time for anything! Two men have ridden from horse came to a trough to water the horses. While the horses were drinking, one of the men said to the other a few words about the value of the word. The two men went off in opposite directions. But the words uttered were the salvation of the one to whom they were uttered, and he became Rev. Mr. Baunton, one of the best preachers in England, who, in heaven lands, for years wondering who did for him the Christian kindness, and not finding out until in a bundle of papers I found the following biography of Brainerd Taylor and a picture of him, and the missionary recognized the face in that book as the man who, at the watering trough for horses, had saved his soul. What opportunities you have had in the past! What opportunities you have now! What opportunities you will have in the future! To the mercenary, and go in and comfort that young mother who lost her babe last summer. Put on your hat oh man, and go over to the poor fellow who has been expelled yesterday to make an assignment, and tell him of the everlasting riches remaining for all those who serve the Lord. Can you sing? Go and sing to the choir. Can you pray? Pray, you will help him into Heaven, let it be your brain, your tongue, your eyes, your ears, your heart, your lungs, your hands, your feet, your life, your death, your time, your eternity for God, feeling in your soul: "To this end was I born." It may be helpful to some of you to know that I am fully prepared. I started for the law without asking any divine direction. I consulted my own tastes. I liked lawyers and court rooms and juries and judges and money. I loved the fine arts and the sciences and the bradleys of the New Jersey bar, and assistant of the county clerk, at 18 years of age, I searched for knowledge, and I got it. I made deals, swore witnesses and juries and grand juries. But after a while I felt a call to the Gospel ministry and entered were. But one summer, when I was resting at Sharon Springs, and while seated in the park of that village, I said to myself, "I have not been praying in the way I ought to find it out now," and with that determination I prayed as I had never before prayed, and got the divine direction, and wrote it down in my memoranda. I was not satisfied with it, and then as plainly as I see it now. Oh, I was not satisfied with general directions. Get specific directions. Do not shoot at random. Take aim and fire.

 I was not satisfied. I happened to get a letter came from his theory of breaking through the enemy's ranks at one point, not trying to meet the whole line of the enemy's force by a general engagement. I thought of the lost Waterloo was because he did not turn his usual theory, and spread his force out over a Christian age. Oh Christian man, oh Christian age, you are not engaged in a general engagement for God, but a particular engagement, and made in answer to prayer. If there are sixteen hundred million people in the world, and sixteen hundred million different missions to fulfill, different styles of work to do, different orbits in which to revolve, and if you do not get the divine direction, there are at least sixteen hundred million possibilities that you will make a mistake.
 Oh, your knees before God get the matter settled so that you can firmly say:
 "I have the divine direction."
 And now I come to the Christian consideration. As near as I can tell you were built for a happy eternity, all the disasters which have happened to the world of men since the fall of man are the result of the Lamb if you will heartily accept that Christly arrangement.
 We are all rejoiced at the increase in human longevity. People live, as near as I can observe, about twice as long as they did in the olden times. The modern doctors do not bleed their patients on all occasions as did the former doctors. On those times if a man had fever, they bled him. If he had a cold, they bled him. If he had the rheumatism they bled him, and if they could not make out exactly what was the matter they bled him. Olden times phlebotomy was a chief conjuror. This is changed

From the way I see people skipping about at 83 years of age I conclude that life insurance companies will have to change their table of risks and charge a man no more premium at 70 than they used to do at 60, and no more premium at 50 than when he was 40. Ily the advancement of medical science and the wider acquaintance with the laws of health, and the fact that people know better how to take care of themselves, human life is prolonged. But do you realize what, after all, is the brevity of our earthly state? In the times when Neighborhood Guilds.

A contemporary summarizes the interesting account of "Neighborhood Guilds" given by Dr. Stanton Coit, the American who has been busy applying to London life the experience which he had already carried out in the heart of New York poverty. A neighborhood guild consists of a number of persons who meet together to assist Dr. Coit's field is divided into five clubs—one for two young boys and girls, two for youths and maidens and one for adults. In each guild the club members are trained to help one another to know each member personally—the vice of excessive size being one which Dr. Coit condemns. Several guilds may federate—the theory of the book is that of producing the family as the best type of corporate life. Above all, everything is built on a democratic basis, and each guild is self-governing. "In the chief ideas of each guild-worker there is a certain understanding of the 'going down' to the poor. The success of the various experiments in guilds shows that this form of charity meets certain needs of the age, and undoubtedly, and to a better understanding between the rich and the poor.

—Editor (wildly): I am ruined—tee-tee-ruined! replied Foreman—What's the matter now? Editor—What's the matter? Why, in my notice of Col. Jones' speech, I have been so careless as to omit and waiting tribe advanced to the altar, hung with lilies and rose leaves, and confound you! here's the way it reads in the paper: "The wretched and degraded and uncaring and unfeeling with liars and horse-thieves." Go off in the wheels and hang yourself. I don't want to waste buckshot on you.—At National Constitution.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.: FRIDAY, - Nov. 6, 1891.

Hon. Henry Watterson, of the Courier-Journal, lectured at Bowling Green Friday night, his subject being "Money and Morals."

The sycophant who attempts to secure your support only to stab you when a dark corner chance comes is a scoundrel of more than 22-calibre short.

Ever since Minister Patrick Egan arrived in Valparaiso the Chilians have been raising hell, and the United States should inform the minister that Egan come home.

The primary election for candidates for city offices at Lexington Saturday resulted in the nomination of J. Hull Davidson for mayor, J. R. Jewell for recorder, and S. G. Sharp for collector.

Larkin Nix was hanged by a mob at Meigs Station, Ga., Saturday night. He had a month before murdered a man by the name of Mira, because the latter objected to his attention to his daughter, Nix being a married man.

Ex-Governor David Meriwether, of Louisville, on Friday celebrated his ninety-second birthday. He still enjoys good health and is as active as a majority of men at half the age. The Meriwether of this glorious climate of Kentucky may lengthen the old governor's years to a centenary.

Kentucky is ahead again. J. Talbot Jackson, of Central University, Richmond, Ky., on Friday won the Interstate medal in the oratorical contest at Charleston, S. C. The contending representatives were from South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia, Georgia and Tennessee. "Bah for Kentucky!"

The turnkey of the Louisville jail on Sunday evening last frustrated the flight of twenty-three moonshiners confined in cell 9, by discovering evidences that led to an investigation. They had picked a hole in the wall and only awaited the darkness of night to remove the last layer of brick between them and liberty. They are now more securely confined.

Forest fires in the counties of Trimble and Bullitt, respectively, last week resulted in great damage to property. One or two farm houses and barns were burned in Trimble, and much property of a similar character was destroyed in Bullitt. In the latter county the fire had reached the fruit section, and the fear was that the orchards, already greatly damaged, would be entirely destroyed.

Three thousand free miners surrounded the stockades at Briceville, and Coal Creek, Tenn., and released 300 convicts, giving them clothes to facilitate their escape. Gov. Buchanan has offered a reward of $5,000 for the leader of the miners, $250 apiece for the other men engaged in releasing the convicts, and $25 each for the return of the convicts. The majority of the convicts started for Kentucky when turned loose.

At this writing it is impossible to tell who has been elected in Ohio, but if the factions in the Republican ranks should have drawn anything from McKinley, as the friends of Campbell hoped, there is a bare possibility that the latter gentleman has been elected. At any rate, the election of Campbell is a consummation devoutly wished by Democrats everywhere. In New York the election of Flower over Fassett is conceded, and the Democratic majority may reach 30,000. We will give the result next week.

A Building and Loan Association is a blessing to any community so fortunate as to have one, and we rejoice that Hazel Green now has one. Those who desire to build homes for their families find in these associations a lender who receives payment in small monthly installments, while the principal and interest are both being decreased by the participation which the borrowers have in the earnings and profits of the Association. All of our citizens who desire to make safe investments should call upon Wm. H. Ford, Secretary and Treasurer, who will take pleasure in explaining the plan to any one who may desire to invest. See him at once.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30, 1891.

President Harrison expressed himself to a personal friend as feeling greatly relieved to turn over the foreign business of the government to Secretary Blaine again. This is doubtless true, but if one may judge from the expressions of opinion from persons of all shades of political belief, demands of this government upon that of Chili regarding the robbing of United States sailors, which was made public this week, and which although signed by Assistant Secretary of State Wharton, was written by Mr. Harrison, demonstrates that Mr. Harrison is an adept in the preparation of State papers. It would be difficult for any one to put that dispatch in more appropriate language, and fortunately upon such questions as this all patriotic Americans, without regard to their political affiliations, occupy precisely the same position. Secretary Blaine had a talk with Senator Montt, who has been appointed Chilean minister to the United States, this week, but as the new minister's credentials have not arrived the talk was entirely informal. Senator Montt expresses the greatest friendship for the United States, but he has a friend and associate who lives at the Chilean legation in this city, that loses no opportunity to express the contempt which he says the Chileans feel for this government and its people. At one time this fellow, whose name is Foster, claimed to be secretary of the legation, but now he says he has no official connection therewith. It might be said of Foster, as Commodore Vanderbilt once said of one of his sons-in-law—"He is more kind of a blank fool than any man I ever saw."

Criticism of public men without just cause never helps anybody or anything. The best friends of temperance regret that an attack, in the name of temperance, has been made upon President Harrison, not for anything that he has done or left undone, but because Mr. Andrew Carnegie, the Scotch-American millionaire, has announced that he had sent a barrel of Scotch whisky to the White House as a present to Mr. Harrison. It by no means follows that Mr. Harrison will drink this whisky because it was given to him, indeed he would have to have an ostrich stomach if he drank all the liquids sent by cranks and friends to the White House. Few Presidents have occupied the White House whose personal habits were more temperate than those of Mr. Harrison, and no President has been a more sincere friend to those engaged in temperance work, therefore it is hard to understand why he should be subjected to harsh criticism for something that he had nothing whatever to do with.

On November 11 the National Council of Administration of the G. A. R. will meet in this city for the purpose of deciding upon the date for holding the National convention next year, and also for the examination of documentary evidence showing that the Washington executive committee has secured the required concessions from hotel keepers and railroads and complied with other stipulated requirements. All these things and more have been done. Every hotel keeper in Washington has bound himself in writing not to add one cent to his regular charges during the encampment.

A number of officials went over to Baltimore Wednesday afternoon to witness the launching of the steel cruiser Detroit, which was a success. It is thought that the twin vessel to the Detroit, which is also to be built at Baltimore, will be christened Mobile.

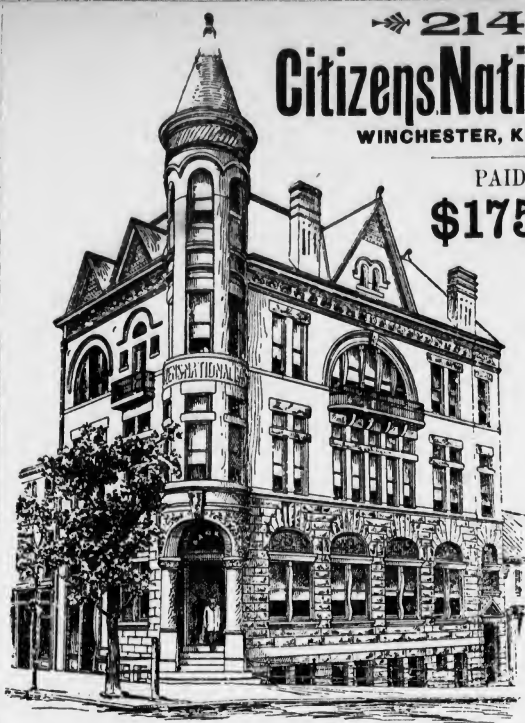

A naval court of inquiry is investigating the recent wrecking of the U. S. S. Dispatch. It seems that the accident was caused by the executive officer changing the sailing orders of the commander, owing to his mistaking one light for another, at least that's the way the testimony so far taken makes it look.

"This is no political headquarters," said an official at the Farmers Alliance headquarters when asked for political news from Ohio. "Whatever action individual members of the organization may take the National Alliance has not yet gone into politics."

Hon. Jerry Simpson, who passed thru Washington this week, says the Alliance Representatives will have their own candidate for Speaker and will not go into the caucus of either of the old parties.

If so, you can get something better than dollars from us. The completion of the K. U. R. We offer to Country Merchants extra inducements, and guarantee to them lower prices than they ever got before. We are overstocked and must unload. Remember we will duplicate any bill, with freights added, either wholesale or retail, east or west, north or south, up hill or down. We are now receiving such lines, bought for CASH at bottom bargains, as will fill every department. New, fresh, seasonable, choice and cheap. We can astonish you with Tests Bros. show exhibited here Saturday, but owing to the fact that it was not advertised in THE HERALD the attendance was very slim. They only gave one performance, in the afternoon, and have gone into winter quarters at Amos Nickell's, near Dayboro. The show is a good one, and the people are the most gentlemanly behaved of any similar organization we ever saw.

John Day leaves this week for Wisconsin for a hunting trip. If we are rightly informed, the boys in that country are always at home and ready to receive calls, especially if the callers are juicy and tender. Imagine John splitting the hills wide open, and a bear in full pursuit, wouldn't he fly? No doubt he will have a pleasant time and lots of fun. Here's wishing him bon voyage.—Jackson Hustler.

Bro. Michel Increases His Flock.

The Presbyterian parsonage at this place was stormed last Monday night by a stranger who was so helpless that the kind pastor and wife could not refuse to give him admission to their hospitable home. The whole family at once fell in love with him and gave him every attention that his needy condition required.

A large number of persons have called to see him and each one comes away with a great deal to say in praise of the new comer.

He is improving rapidly under the kind treatment he receives, and is so anxious to do something for a livelihood that they have set him up in the dairy business and he has gone to work in hard earnest.

He promises to be an industrious and useful citizen. The Hustler extends to him a hearty welcome, and would suggest to him that if he expects to make life a success he must advertise.—Jackson Hustler.

A Difficulty in Morgan County.

A difficulty occurred on Little Caney, in Morgan county, last Saturday in which nine shots were exchanged. Uriah and Joe Elam were engaged on one side, and Beverly and Frank Lewis on the other.

Joe Elam owned a piece of land through which the Lewis boys had to pass to the road, and Elam refusing to let them go through they undertook to force their way, with the result that Beverly Lewis received a severe wound from a hatchet in the hands of Uriah Elam. One man had all of his vest and shirt torn away and his abdomen grazed by the contents of a double-barrel shot gun. Coon Stamp endeavored to act as peacemaker and held the muzzle of a shot gun in either hand while he stood between two of the belligerents. Warrants were Saturday issued for all the parties.

Letter From Indian Territory.

ARMORE, I. T., Oct. 23, 1891.

EDITOR HERALD:—You will find enclosed one dollar for your valuable paper, a copy of which came to hand yesterday.

Saw so many familiar names in the list, it made me feel a little homesick; proud to hear "Supple Jack" recommending the old State so highly, but doubtless he never has visited the Lone Star State.

I am partial towards the old State myself, and if I were to say that I would betray my judgment. Guess Mr. Supple Jack is in bad health.

With many thanks, as ever,

CATHARINE HENRY.

One Dollar Equal to Two.

In these days of hard times the man is indeed lucky who can make one dollar go as far as two. But every man in this section can do that if he will. Louis & Gus Straus, leading clothiers of Lexington, Ky., are now in receipt of a large stock of goods which they are selling at fifty cents on the dollar. Any man who has an overcoat or a suit can save the expense of trip and money besides by visiting them, opposite Phoenix, Lexington, Ky.

Joined the Headlights.

The many friends of Green Strother in this section will heartily congratulate him on his marriage. The Sentinel-Democrat, of last week, says: "Green Strother, of this city, and Miss Tillie Sturgeon, of Denton, Ky., were married in Lexington on Thursday last week. They are now located in this city. Our congratulations are freely extended."

He Has Changed His Mind.

Owing to the urgent persuasion of my many friends I have decided to remain and serve them until spring, and am now ready to attend, day or night, those who have not settled are requested to call at once, as I am bound to have money or a settlement some way.

Respectfully,

JOHN A. TAULBEE, M. D.

Hon. J. C. Lykins returned one day last week from West Liberty, where he had been attending Common Pleas court.

Mrs. James P. Hall, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Elliott county, returned home one day last week.

J. Harlan Stamper, who is in the mercantile business at Torrent, Ky., visited his family at this place Saturday and Sunday.

Milton V. Potts moved to Hazel Green last Friday. We regret very much to see him up, but Hazel Green gains a good citizen while Campton loses one.

S. S. Cums, the gentlemanly proprietor of the Combs House, returned Saturday from Cincinnati and other points, where he bought a full supply of dry goods, etc.

Misses Maggie and Alice Smith, daughters of our citizen Capt. S. B. Smith, and two of Wolfe county's most charming beauties, paid our town a flying visit Friday, Oct. 30.

Mrs. Sarah Jane Drake, wife of our fellow townsman John E. Drake, died Thursday morning of dropsy. She was a member of the Christian church and met the grim monster with joy, which faith in the Lord Jesus Christ only can give. She was loved by all who knew her, and the world is better by her having lived in it. The night was never too dark, nor the chilly blasts of winter were never too cold to prevent her from visiting the sick and the dying and administering to their wants. We are confident that she is singing with the angels, on the elysian fields of heaven, where fragrant flowers bloom forever, and basking in the golden sunshine of the countenance of Him who died on Calvary's rugged brow. Let us emulate her example and meet her on the glittering streets of pure gold, where parting will be no more. Her body was laid to rest in the Evans graveyard, one mile from town, to await the resurrection morn. Her funeral was preached at the graveyard by Rev. F. A. Savage.

MORGAN COUNTY.

Maytown Mistles.

Last week was a dry and sad time in the history of our town, especially about grub time. A defect in the boiler of W. W. Manker's mill was the cause, and thanks to the energy of W. W. M. and the bow machinist Mr. Curtin, of Lexington, the mills are all O. K. and doing better work than ever.

Some of THE HERALD subscribers at this place want to know what has become of THE HERALD correspondents. We can only answer for one, and that was we were waiting for some new subscribers that we might have something to write about.

Mrs. R. A. Sample has had a very severe attack of pneumonia since returning from Virginia, but thanks to a kind Providence she is around again.

The protracted meeting that commenced here on the 20th of October is still going on. We trust that great good has and will be done.

C. C. Pieratt, Miss Lulia Jones and Miss Lowens Ingram are all very low with fever.

J. B. Cecil, wife and little daughter are visiting in town.

AN EXCITING CHASE.

The Arrest of a Forger by Laurel County's Sheriff.

The little town of London, Ky., had quite a sensation one day last week. A wagoner from Perry county entered the First National Bank and presented two forged checks for payment, one for $350 and the other for $570, both signed A. L. Lewis, one payable to J. C. Rogers, a merchant of Hyden, and the other to John Bowling, whom the wagoner impersonated. Cashier Ford at once recognized the forgery, and, politely asking the man to be seated a few minutes, sent a boy for Sheriff Moren. The man, whose name is ascertained to be Joe Minard, became nervous and demanded his checks or the money thereon. On receiving neither he left the bank in anger. So when the Sheriff came in Mr. Ford went out on the street with him, where they were not long in finding the would-be swindler. He was arrested on the spot, and on the way to the jail he asked permission to give bail.

The Sheriff undertook to assist Minard, but, on reaching the depot, Minard stepped behind the Sheriff and struck him a severe blow in the back of the head, felling him to the ground and cutting an ugly and painful gash. The culprit at once took to his heels, and came near escaping. Town Marshal Harben, who was near by, seized the Sheriff's pistol and pursued, the Sheriff coming in the rear after recovering from the shock. Harben opened and continued firing until he arrested the man, in the edge of the woods, near the Riley House. He was materially assisted by Col. Colbert, who slipped out the back way from the hotel and came upon the fugitive unexpectedly, and he was so near that he turned and surrendered at once. Minard admits his guilt.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

HE WILL HANG.

Simpson Bush to be Executed at Stanton in December.

Simpson Bush, confined in the Stanton jail and sentenced to hang for the murder of his wife in Clay City, was considerably affected last week when informed that the decision in his case had been affirmed by the Court of Appeals. He remarked that he is innocent of the charge, and is as well prepared for death as he ever will be, and he said he would not confess that he did the murder in order to get his sentence commuted to life imprisonment, and that he would not confess to a thing that he did not do. Bush, according to the sentence pronounced at the last term of the Powell Circuit court, by Judge Riddell, will be hanged at a point near the jail in Stanton on December 14 next. Bush claims that either his wife or one of the other occupants in their room did the shooting. Should Bush hang it will be the first legal hanging ever done in Powell county.

We want every mother to know that croup can be prevented. True croup never appears without a warning. The first symptom is hoarseness, then the child appears to have taken cold, or a cold may have accompanied the hoarseness from the start. After that a peculiar rough cough is developed, which is followed by the croup. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse, a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy would prevent the attack. Even after the rough cough has appeared, the disease may be prevented by using this remedy as directed. The only safe way is to keep a 50 cent bottle of the Remedy in the house for use whenever the symptoms of the disease appear. For sale by Rose & Swango.

It has leaked out that a Miss Likens, of Sharonville, Va., was killed a few days ago by a big bear, which was found and shot by a watchman in Kentucky. The young lady had been partially devoured.

GAME OLD PALO ALTO.

The Hero of the Stanford Stables Lowers His Record—New Year, Attention to the Gang of Robbers.

At Stockton, Cal., October 27, Palo Alto, the old hero of the Stanford stables, beat his record, trotting a mile in 2:10 flat. He made the quarters in :32, :32, :33 and :33. It was a game race against time from start to finish, and the old campaigner did not make a skip in the entire mile.

When he went to the quarter in 32 seconds, horsemen said the pace was too fast, and when he reached the half in 1:03 they said he could not keep his feet. But Palo Alto was out to beat all his efforts, and went at this surprising gait throughout the mile without even a touch of Marvin's will. Expert horsemen contend that Palo Alto will beat the world's stallion record of 2:09, held by Allerton. They expect to send him again in a few days on this track if the weather holds good.

Opinions of the Trade South. I find Chamberlain's medicines very excellent, particularly Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.—B. E. Etheridge, Hallettville, Texas. I have tried Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with great success.—R. Tanneret, Waverland, Miss. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy can not be beat.—W. L. Davis, Liberty Hill, La. I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family, and consider it the best I have ever tried.—W. J. Flowers, Doraville, Ga. Fifty cent bottles for sale by Rose & Swango.

A Working Congressman. The Washington correspondent of the Courier-Journal says: "Hon. John H. Wilson, after attending to a great many demands made upon him by his constituents, and also keeping an eye on the Paducah post-office in the interest of Maj. Barnes, left for his home yesterday. While in Washington he did a great deal of work for the people of Eastern Kentucky. As Mr. Wilson is the only Republican Representative from Kentucky, the demands upon him are great."

Consumption Cured. An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested his wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 820 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y.

The Kentucky two-year-old colt, Ralph Wilkes by Red Wilkes, dam by Mambrino Patchen, owned by Dr. Galbreath, of Lexington, Ky., made a record recently at Independence, Iowa, of 2:18, with the wind blowing almost a gale. It is quite probable that he will be sent to California to trot against Arion, 2:14.

For Sore Throat.—Saturate a flannel bandage with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on the throat. It will cure any ordinary case in one night's time. For sale by Rose & Swango.

A cow belonging to J. A. Menges, a prominent stock breeder living north of Goshen, Ind., gave birth to four calves, each weighing about forty five pounds. This makes a total of eleven calves which this same cow has given birth to within the past three years, she having had two three times.

EIGHTH GILLILAND CAUGHT.

Good Citizens Determined to Put an End to the Gang of Robbers.

Milton Gilliland was arrested Wednesday week by Deputy Sheriff Hansford and taken to Somerset, Ky., and in default of bail was lodged in jail. Young Gilliland is implicated with the notorious Gilliland gang in robberies committed a few years ago, for which crime he was recently indicted by the grand jury of Pulaski county. Milton Gilliland is a son of Wesley Gilliland, and a nephew of the notorious Doc Gilliland, who is still at large. This makes the eighth member of the gang who has been arrested. Some sixteen are under indictment, and some of them declare they will not be arrested. A united effort is being made by the best citizens of the county to forever break up the gang, and so far they have arrested half of the accused.

Special Notice. Arrangements have been made with the various railroads in the State which will enable the delegates attending the State meeting of the Farmers' and Laborers' Union, at Elizabethtown, Ky., November 10, to get one and one-third fare; that is, when you get your ticket you will get a certificate from the agent showing that you have paid one full fare, this will enable you to get a return ticket for one-third fare. Don't fail to get a certificate when you buy your ticket. Fraternally yours, B. F. DAVIS, State Sec.

Pocket Will Hang. The case of William Puckett, who, with Ambrose Puckett and Toby Puckett, was indicted for killing Henry Hall in Estill county, last March, was last week affirmed in the Court of Appeals. The lower court sentenced Puckett to death by hanging on December 4 next, but the date of the execution will have to be fixed by the Governor.
